Women as Well as Men THEBIRTH OF CHRIST Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and leasens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kid-afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the second of the sec control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and biadder and not a challenge

The manger. Here is a Madonna worth looking at. I wonder het that the most frequent name in all lands and the most frequent name in all lan brated them. Tintoretto and Ghirlan-dajo surpassed themselves in the ado-ration of the magi. Correggio needed to do no more than his Madonna to bethe admiration of all ages. But all the galeries of Dresden are forgotten when I think of the small room of that gallery containing the "Sistine Madonan." Yet all of them were copies of St. Matthew's Madonan and Luke's Madonan, the inspired Madonan of the old Book.

Some of the old painters represent the oxen and camels kneeling that night before the newborn Babe. And well might they kneel! Have you ever the brute creation? Was it not appro-priate that He should, during the first few days and nights of His life on earth, be surrounded by the dumb beasts, whose moans and plaint and bellowing have for ages been a prayer to God for the arresting of their tor-tures and the righting of their wrongs?
